THE COURTS.

TO-MORROW'S CALENDAR. The cases set for to-morrow (Saturday) are as follows:

Motions in all of the rooms except No. 1 Superior. Before Judge Harmon.

34,870—Stenaber, Son & Co. vs. John Schneider

34,871—Minnie Shroyer vs. The Independent Order of Workmen

34,872—Fanny L. Greenfield vs. The Independent Order of Mutual Aid et al.

34,873—James Neault vs. John Nelson et al.

34,874—The Louisville, Cincinnati & Lexington Railroad Company vs. Chas. Kahn, Jr.

34,875—John A. Hamilton vs. Amelia H. Leonard et al.

34,876—Ellen Hall vs. The Supreme Lodge Independent Order of Mutual Aid of the United States.

34,877—Superior. Andrew Earley against John Brady and others; James Benton against Frank Ramsey and others.

34,878—Superior. Judge Harmon held that until the liability of the principal defendants was fixed by a legal tribunal no action could be maintained against the bondsmen.

34,879—Superior. Elizabeth Eibel against Kate Burklard. This was a suit to recover damages for slander, and the defendant claimed that in the same conversation the plaintiff slandered her, and she seeks to set off the one slander against the other.

34,880—Superior. The Court held this case not to be a bar, and that the defendant must bring a separate action.

34,881—Superior. Catherine Ulrich against Valentine Ulrich. In this action the wife sues her husband to recover $5,000 which she alleges she loaned him after marriage.

34,882—Superior. Judge Harmon held that this was not a good defense, and that the suit was well brought.

34,883—Superior. Jacob Seasmood, Samuel Kuhn, R. R. Springer and others vs. J. G. Frazz, Treasurer. These were thirteen suits instituted by bankers of this city for an injunction to restrain the Treasurer from collecting a tax on United States bonds in their hands.

34,884—Superior. Judge Harmon said that this question has been passed on by the Supreme Court of the United States, where it was held that United States bonds can not be reached for taxation directly or indirectly.

34,885—Superior. Demurrer to petition overruled, and plaintiffs held to be entitled to an injunction.

34,886—Superior. Joseph S. Cook and wife vs. Joseph Scheff. Action against a tenant to recover $300 for injury to premises on Race street, near Thirteenth. In progress.

34,888—Superior. Disorderly Conduct—Joseph Schlosser, Wm. Healey, $3; Lou Lorings, Martha Fisher, $5; Mary Griffin, $50.30; John Radcliff, $5.

34,889—Superior. Assault and Battery—Wm. Lyons, 30 days; Clement Deters, $50; P. Schaller, Josephine Eckel, not guilty.

34,890—Superior. Miscellaneous—Wm. Davis, John Stewart, keeping place where intoxicating liquors are sold, dismissed; Mrs. J. P. Neaynes, same, continued; Lafayette Chry, cutting, etc., continued; James Horton, Bertie Conover, vagrancy, continued; Francis Lee, same, House of Refuge; James McLanahan, known thief, continued; Thomas Nuttle, Pat. Tracy, assault, etc., continued; George Jackson, carrying concealed weapon, $100.

34,891—Superior. Emerson's Maneuvers. Jesse Emerson, a genteel, shrewd-looking individual, was arrested last evening by Detective Duffy on suspicion of being connected with bogus commission houses.

34,892—Superior. Before yesterday he went to Dury's Central Agency and sent a list of required merchants and business firms. The procuring of this list is what caused his arrest.

34,893—Superior. Men in the bogus business generally procure a list of this kind, open a house under the name of a retired firm, send out circulars stating that they have resumed business, get credit for a large amount of goods, and then skip.

34,894—Superior. Emerson was closely questioned by Colonel Wappenstein this morning, and all the Colonel could get out of him was that he had thought the list of names for a man named Thomas in Leavenworth, Kansas.

34,895—Superior. Chief Justice Emerson's picture taken, and then set him at liberty.

34,896—Superior. MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH. WILMINGTON, Dec. 5.—Spirits turpentine firm at 37c.
